	Code of Conduct

SECTION 1 – INTRODUCTION

This Code of Conduct has been developed in accordance with the South African Schools Act, 1996.

It promotes the Mission Statement of HeronBridge College and works towards a well-balanced, broad education for pupils, a professional environment for teachers and an atmosphere for the extension of generally accepted family principles. It applies to all aspects of school life and incorporates both behavioural goals and disciplinary codes. The code defines the standard behaviour expected of and required from all stakeholders.

It is accepted that this code is a dynamic document, requiring frequent deliberation, and possible revision, in order to always satisfy the needs of the HeronBridge College community. To this end, stakeholders are invited to submit any suggestions that may be reviewed from time to time.

If all parties adhere to both the spirit and the letter of the code, healthy working relationships will be created between parents, teachers and pupils, these relationships being the essential foundation for the creation of a constructive teaching, learning and growing environment. The disciplinary codes are intended to promote the maintenance of discipline and order at HeronBridge College (hereafter referred to as “HeronBridge”).

The Code of Conduct is to be presented to all parties concerned on first acceptance to HeronBridge. Signature by parents/guardians of the Contract of Enrolment indicates an acceptance of the Code, as does the employment contract for teachers.

SECTION 2 – CODE OF CONDUCT

The Code of Conduct applies to all within the ambit of HeronBridge College. It promotes the good of pupils, teachers and parents. Regardless of specific age or role, all associated with HeronBridge will conduct themselves appropriately at all times to ensure optimum accomplishment.

Code:

Pupils are to understand that they each, through their own response to the Code of Conduct and subsequent daily behaviour, either encourage or prevent the attainment of the College's objectives. The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to ensure that the opportunities presented at HeronBridge are fully utilised. The code thus identifies what behaviour is required and expected. This follows from 2.1.1 – 2.1.3 and in the associated discipline codes in Sections 3, 4, 6.

2.1.1 As regards teachers:

Pupils will respect the right of teachers to teach, to co-ordinate learning activities and to facilitate the full school programme. Pupils will show respect to teachers by:

Code:

While every teacher can expect the respect, support and co-operation of Heronbridge, parents and pupils in his or her efforts to create a healthy learning environment inside and outside the classroom, it is important that teachers acknowledge their responsibilities. Teachers at HeronBridge thus undertake to:

- maintain a professional bearing and manner and by so doing set a positive example to the pupils;

Code:

HeronBridge prides itself on the good relations it enjoys with parents. While parents can expect the College to provide their children with the best possible education according to the resources available to it, parents must also accept certain responsibilities in achieving the goals set. Parents should:

- support teachers in their efforts to teach their children, i.e. monitor homework, check test results, help set goals, regularly consult their diary for teachers' comments;
- communicate with Head or Deputy timeously regarding areas of concern before they become major issues;
- make suggestions or provide assistance to improve the educational process and environment;
- encourage their children to participate fully in the College's programme;
- endeavour to uphold moral and legal behaviour in their children as regards alcohol, cigarettes, substance abuse and sexual activity;
- be aware at all times of the whereabouts of their children and set parameters as far as time lines, transport arrangements, dress codes and appropriate behaviour is concerned;
- communicate with the parents of their children's friends to verify information and to hereby avoid manipulation.

SECTION 3 – DISCIPLINE CODE*3.1 Discipline Code – Preparatory School*3.1.1 Principles

- The underlying Biblical principle of the Preparatory School Discipline Code is to glorify God through every aspect of our behaviour.
- "Self-control is the goal" is the discipline motto, as the pupils are encouraged to accept responsibility for their own behaviour.
- The Discipline Code is built around the Code of Conduct laid out to pupils.
- Consequences for breaking the Code of Conduct are predetermined across the Preparatory school.
- The consequences for transgressing the expected conduct are transparent to all and are presented in language that is accessible to every pupil.
- The Junior Preparatory School follows an age appropriate version of the Preparatory Discipline Code. (Refer to the Junior Preparatory Discipline Policy)
- While there are consequences for deviant behaviour, the emphasis will always remain on positive reinforcement, building up learners and not breaking them down. Equal attention will be placed on commendations as on warnings.

3.1.2 Positive Reinforcement*Stickers and Stamps

- Stickers and stamps are used across the Preparatory school by teachers to reward persistent effort, positive work ethic and achieving a personal best in the classroom as well as to acknowledge and encourage good sportsmanship and effort during co-curricular activities.

- Each teacher is at liberty to implement their own positive reward system in the classroom and should, where possible, link it to the house merit system.
- Teachers may send pupils to the Deputy Heads/Head for a good work stamp/sticker for exceptional effort and achievement.

House Merits

- House merits can be awarded to the children for:
  - right values and good attitudes;
  - sportsmanship;
  - recycling efforts and community service;
  - academic performance.
- The emphasis is on Esprit de Corps and the team and not the individual.
- Merits will be collected in a box in the front office and totaled each Thursday for learner feedback in the Friday assembly.

Blue Heron Badges

These are handed out at Junior Preparatory assemblies on Fridays recognising children's behavior consistent with our ethos, positive work ethic and good sportsmanship.

Integrity Tea

The Integrity Tea is a prestigious tea with the Head to reward those children who have been commended for excellent values, manners and conduct. The PA to the Head will be advised when a child is nominated by teachers for the tea. The tea is held termly.

3.1.2 Consequences of actions – Building a Responsibility of Self

Discipline Chart

- The Discipline Code will be transparent to all learners and the Discipline Chart is printed in the Grade 4-7 HeronBridge Agenda book.
- The chart clearly outlines the reporting line when children contravene the Code of Conduct.
- It is written in age and offence appropriate language.
- It places responsibility on the teacher as first line of discipline, but clearly indicates where matters need to be referred to the Deputy and Head. At this level the discipline will take a formal approach with a disciplinary hearing where necessary. The hearing will follow set procedures. HBC reserves the right to run a complete disciplinary process, including an investigation, an informal or a formal hearing and/or an appeal process, before a parent or guardian may seek legal representation.
- Each class teacher will discuss the chart with the children and refer them back to it as need arises.
- In the Junior Preparatory, expected behaviour posters are displayed in each class and each week a behaviour challenge is discussed and given at morning line-up. The weekly behaviour challenge is displayed on the main Junior Preparatory notice board.. (Refer to the Junior Preparatory Discipline Policy)

Warnings

- In the Junior Prep Phase, red dots act as warnings and are given to the children on a behaviour slip detailing the deviant behaviour. These slips are kept by the class teacher and parents are notified once the child has received three red dots. Class teachers keep a record of the re (Refer to the Junior Preparatory Discipline Policy)
- In the Intermediate Phase, warnings will be written up and recorded by the class teacher. Specialist teachers are to inform class teachers of warnings issued.
- Warnings for behaviour offences and work ethic issues should be kept separate.
- Teachers should be cautious to issue warnings for acts of commission and not omission. Children are to be disciplined for issues of defiance rather than occasional irresponsibility. Staff will consciously guard against punitive and petty policing.
- The warnings can be for any misdemeanours and may not necessarily be about the same issue.
- The Deputy Head or Head may issue a detention without warnings.
- It is also important to note that a disciplinary hearing could result in the ultimate removal of the child from HeronBridge.

Discipline Records

- Each class teacher is responsible for keeping a record of behaviour either in hard copy or on computer.
- A system will also be in place where other specialist teachers are able to comment on the children's behavior.
- On the third offence, the parents should receive a note enlisting their help and support concerning the issues of concern. This demands the collection of a reply slip, acknowledging the receipt of our communication. Continued transgressions will be referred to the Deputy Head or Head who will issue a warning of detention.
- One transgression further will lead to a detention and thereafter, every second offence for the same misdemeanour.
- Discipline sheets will be filed to Learner Profiles and recorded on Pencil Box at the end of the year should there be a significant record of deviant behaviour.

3.2 Discipline Code – College

It is every pupil's right to receive an education and while the College will strive to provide the educational opportunities our community has come to expect, it is important that pupils acknowledge their responsibilities in the process.

There are many forms of recognition within the College which reward positive, sustained performance and behaviour. These may take the form of praise, favourable diary or newsletter entries, public announcements, S.R.C. election, colours, councillorship, awards made at formal assemblies, Honours Dinner, Prize-Giving or Valediction. These serve as positive rewards to motivate pupils to achieve and to exhibit the behaviour expected at HeronBridge.

Discipline will be exerted in all cases where behaviour is inappropriate and always with positive purpose – to define the error, correct the behaviour and prevent future infringement.

The following sections will define the kinds of behaviour that will not be tolerated. The procedures and punishments that may be expected are outlined. The discipline code applies whenever a pupil may be associated with HeronBridge, not only during school hours. Please note that it is impossible to list every punishable offence that may be committed by a pupil. For this reason the Head, or staff member delegated by him for the purpose, may take appropriate action on any behaviour deemed an infringement of the principles of the discipline code.

4.6 Principles

4.6.1 In every instance, regardless of whether or not the pupil/s concerned are removed from HeronBridge, counselling will be offered and the College's facilities or advice made available.

4.6.2 To ensure that HeronBridge's property is maintained as a drug free zone, the strictest measures must be taken in cases where inappropriate substances are:

- transported to school or to any activity associated with the College;
- passed on to others at school or at any activity associated with the College.

4.6.3 The degree of involvement of any pupil must be assessed thoroughly and actions taken must be commensurate with the severity of the case, the past disciplinary record of the individual concerned, any coercion or intimidation which may have taken place, as well as the reaction of the individual to being involved.

4.6.4 Pupils may be guilty by association: those in company of others at the time they are guilty of infringements to this policy can be deemed similarly culpable and may be subjected to the same or other disciplinary action.

4.6.5 The Head has the right to search any pupil, in accordance with the prescriptions of the Government Gazette, Notice 776 of 1998.

4.7 Police action

THE SECURITY OF BOUNDARIES (Dr James Dobson)

Children feel more secure, and therefore tend to flourish, when they know where the boundaries are. Let me illustrate that principle.

Imagine you're driving a car over the Royal Gorge Bridge in Colorado, which is suspended hundreds of feet above the canyon floor. As a first-time traveller, you're pretty tense as you drive across. It is a scary experience. I know one little fellow who was so awed by the view over the side of the bridge that he said, "Wow Daddy! If you fell off of here, it'd kill you constantly!"

Now suppose there were no guardrails on the side of the bridge. Where would you steer the car? Right down the middle of the road. Even though you don't plan to hit those protective railings along the side, you just feel more secure knowing that they're there.

It's the same way with children. There is security in defined limits. They need to know precisely what the rules are and who's available to enforce them. When these clear boundaries exist at home, the child lives in utter safety. He never gets in trouble unless he deliberately asks for it. And as long as he stays within those reasonable, well-marked guardrails, there's mirth and freedom and acceptance.

Your children need the security of defined limits, too. They may not admit that they want you to be the boss, but they breathe easier when you are.
